Celtic Spirituality, Celtic Humor, Hope and Hutzpah

March 13, 2013

6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Joe Glass

Presenter

Neumann University Special Rate: $15

About this program. . .

The presenter plans to “steal your heart away” with a four-pronged approach:

1. Following a long-standing comic tradition, the presenter will deliver material stolen from the best Irish comedians and humorists.
2. Using state-of-the-art sleight of tongue, the presenter will sneak in a few serious stories and gospel themes.
3. If anyone still remains unmoved, the presenter will sit at the keyboard and play some Irish music.
4. If all else fails, the presenter has agreed to serve tea and scones at the conclusion of one, two and three.

Those planning to attend should bring a four-pronged fork. Homemade scones and Irish tea will be served!

About the Presenter. . .

Joe Glass earned BA and MA degrees from Mount Saint Mary University and a D. Min. degree from the Graduate Theological Foundation. Joe has worked almost entirely in the non-profit world--specifically Catholic related organizations--serving in education, communication, marketing, and public relations. A professional keyboardist, using the stage name “M.T. Glass,” he appears at jazz clubs along the east coast. Currently, Dr. Glass is Assistant Professor of Communication and Media Arts at Neumann University in Aston, PA.
