

Dr. Margaret Mary Kearney Scholarships: Endowed and Restrictive Programs

To demonstrate a firm commitment to Catholic Franciscan tradition the Cultural Arts Forum at Neumann University supports non-traditional student scholarship programs. Since 1984, the CAF has promoted the mission of the University by supporting the institution's Core Values. These Rises - Reverence, Integrity, Service, Excellence and Stewardship - are an integral part of the lives of all Neumann students and part of the CAF scholarship program.

The members, desirous to continue financial assistance to adult, female students, thereby honoring Dr. Margaret Mary Kearney, its deceased foundress, have established an endowment to continue awards in perpetuity. Restrictive scholarships have been awarded to deserving female students who demonstrate great financial need to continue their education at the University. All awards are administrated through the Office of Financial Aid at Neumann University.
