

Stephen Gallagher, Executive Coach, LeadershipCoach

Stephen P. Gallagher works as an executive coach for lawyers. He formed Leadershipcoach in 2003 after working for thirteen years as a Practice Management Advisor for the New York State Bar Association. Mr. Gallagher works with lawyers to help them grow their worth to the organization and to develop the transferable skills needed to enhance their market value.

Mr. Gallagher holds a M.Ed. degree in Counseling Education and in 2006 he completed a second Master of Sciences in Organizational Dynamics (MSOD) from the University of Pennsylvania. Stephen is a regular contributor to professional publications on topics such as client development, strategic planning, leadership and succession planning. Many of his writings can be accessed through his website at www.leadershipcoach.us.

Stephen is an adjunct faculty member at both Neumann University and St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia, PA. Stephen is also a member of Neumann University's Academic Affairs Committee.