

Mike Neilon
Planning Editor

6ABC (Action News)

Mike Neilon, Planning Editor at 6ABC (Action News) has worked behind the scenes at Action News for the past 15 years, covering and handling day-to-day news coverage at the leading television news outlet in the Delaware Valley.

The job entails planning and executing daily news gathering and responding to "breaking" news.

Some career highlights include:

First journalist to break National Exclusive on Joe Paterno's firing. The news was first tweeted-out on Jim Gardner's twitter account.

First journalist to report the re-arrest of Jerry Sandusky which turned into the lead story on ABC World News Tonight.

Investigated a Suburban Prostitution Network that operated out of King of Prussia.

Exposed a local charter school for operating a night-club in their school cafeteria and sold alcohol after school hours.

He produced numerous one-on-one EXCLUSIVE interviews with President Barack Obama and covered numerous presidential visits. He also covered PA politics at all levels.