About the program. . .

The topic of this day will focus on what has been called modern-day slavery. Victims, women and young girls, are often enticed and promised a better and more glamorous way of life only to be exploited, abused, and even controlled. Alone and destitute, they have nowhere to go and no one to turn to. Today, the sale of women and girls is becoming as common as the sale of illegal drugs. Shockingly, it is estimated that human trafficking is profiting as much as $9.5 billion a year. Come and learn about Human Trafficking. Become informed about community needs and the importance of what ONE person can do.

About the presenters. . .

Mary Kay Flannery SSJ is a Sister of St. Joseph of Philadelphia. She is an experienced spiritual director and retreat presenter. She is involved in education and advocacy in the Justice of Immigrants Campaign, as well as retreat ministry and teaching at local universities in the Philadelphia area. Mary Kay holds a doctor of ministry degree in spirituality and intercultural ministry from the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago.

Donna Jo Repetti OSF, a Sister of St. Francis of Philadelphia, is the Director of Guidance at Benedictine Academy in Elizabeth, NJ, serving as director of guidance and theology/campus ministry. With other faculty members, she has created an exceptional campus ministry designed to form young women as leaders who learn to serve the school, the community, and the world.
