

Catherine Judge Cardillo, Associate Vice President for Government and Community Affairs, Mercy Health System

Catherine Judge Cardillo is the Associate Vice President for Government and Community Affairs at Mercy Health System, where she is charged with educating all Mercy Health System subsidiaries about local, state and federal legislative developments and policies related to health care, and maintaining working relationships with local, state and federal elected officials with respect to the changing health care environment. Cardillo serves as a member of the Workforce Investment Board, Chair of the Youth Council, Chair of The Foundation of the Delaware County Chamber of Commerce, and as a member of the Government Affairs Committee of the Delaware County Chamber of Commerce.

She holds BS from Widener University and Master of Business Administration from Holy Family University. She received achieved Lean Six Sigma Black Belt Certification from Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies, and is a member of the Board of Directors of Sharon Saving Bank, as well as being active in several non-profit organizations.