

Binney Wietlisbach, President, Haverford Trust

Binney Wietlisbach is the President, Director, and Member of Executive Committee at Haverford Trust Company. She is also Executive Vice President, Secretary, and Director of Haverford Financial Services, Inc. Binney is directly responsible for all Private Client Services of the firm, including investment management, trust, and private banking services. She joined Haverford Trust in 1992, having worked in the investment industry since 1985. Previously, Binney was employed with Meridian Bank, where she worked in their private banking department.

She is Member of Board of Directors of Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, Regional Board of F.O.C.U.S., the Board of Directors of the Caroline A. Buck Foundation and the Board of Councilors of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. She is a FINRA Series 7, 24, 27, 63, and 65 license holder.

Binney received her Bachelor's degree from Penn State University. She has been named one of the "Top 100 Women Financial Advisors" and "Top 1000 Financial Advisors in Pennsylvania" by Barron's Magazine, as well as a Mainline Today "Woman on the Move" and Philadelphia Business Journal "Woman of Distinction."