

Rev. Dr. Lorina Marshall-Blake, Vice President of Community Affairs, Independence Blue Cross

Lorina Marshall-Blake is the Vice President of Community Affairs for Independence Blue Cross. She is also President of the Independence Blue Cross Foundation. Her responsibility is to make sure high level decision makers have a good understanding of Blue Cross's goals and its commitment. Marshall-Blake has 35 years of experience in corporate management, public relations, and communications. She received a BA in Human Services from Antioch College and a MA in Government Administration from the University of Pennsylvania. She is currently studying at the Palmer Theological Seminary for a Master of Divinity degree and in 2007 she received an Honorary Doctorate of Humanities from Albright College.

In addition, Marshall-Blake serves as an associate minister at the Vine Memorial Baptist Church. She is also affiliated with over 30 professional and civic organizations. Among those are the United Negro College Fund, Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, Blue Cross Blue Shield Association Federal Affairs Committee, Urban Affairs Coalition, and the Governor's Patient Safety Authority.