

Bruce E. Toll, Vice Chairman, Toll Brothers

Bruce Toll co-founded Toll Brothers, the nation's leading builder of luxury homes, in 1967, taking the company public on the New York Stock Exchange in 1986. Mr. Toll served as President of the Company from 1967 until 1998, at which time he became Vice Chairman. Toll Brothers has been honored with numerous awards, including Builder of the Year from Professional Builder Magazine, America's Best Builder from the National Association of HomeBuilders and Builder Magazine, and the National Housing Quality Award from the National Association of Homebuilders.

Mr. Toll co-founded, served on the Board of Directors, and was the largest shareholder of UbiquiTel, Inc., a publicly traded company which provided Sprint PCS digital communication services to mid-size markets in the western and mid-western United States, until it was acquired by Sprint in 2006. He was also the largest investor and served on the Board of Directors of Fifth Street Capital, a business development corporation founded in 2000.

Mr. Toll is the owner of BET Investments, Inc. which owns, develops, and manages over six million square feet of office, commercial and industrial properties from Arizona to New York and over 3,000 apartments. He is also the owner and operator of two automobile agencies, Reedman-Toll Auto World in Langhorne, Pennsylvania, the largest automobile dealer in the country which sells Chrysler/Dodge/Jeep, Chevrolet, Jaguar, Subaru, Mazda and Lincoln-Mercury products; and Roberts Auto Mall in Downingtown, Pennsylvania which sells Chevrolet, Honda, and Subaru products; and the Owner and Chairman of Puresyn Corp., a biotech company located in Malvern, Pennsylvania. Mr. Toll is also the owner of BET Associates which is a mezzanine lender for various types of businesses and he is the President of Toll Management Company, which owns and manages commercial and apartment properties in the greater Philadelphia area.

Mr. Toll served on the Chairman's Advisory Board of the Ben Franklin Technology Center of Southeastern Pennsylvania; he is a Member and the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Abington Memorial Hospital, the Executive Board of the Philadelphia Museum of Art; and he also served on the Boards of Beth Shalom Synagogue, the University of Miami, and the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County.

Mr. Toll is also the Founder and President of the Abington Township Industrial and Commercial Development Authority. He is a former member of the Young Presidents' Organization and a current member of the World Presidents' Organization and Chief Executives Organization. He is also a former member of the Board of the Pennsylvania Nursing Home Loan Agency, the Board of Directors of Philmont Country Club, the Board of Directors of the Foundation of the Philadelphia Heart Institute, the Fannie Mae Housing Impact Advisory Council, and the Board of the Homebuilders Association of Bucks/Montgomery Counties.

Mr. Toll earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Miami in 1965 and attended graduate school of business at the University of Miami in 1966.