

Basil Merenda, of Counsel, Lavin Law

Basil Merenda is of counsel in the Philadelphia office of Lavin, O’Neil, Ricci, Cedrone & DiSipio, where he is a member of the firm’s Litigation Practice Group. He also represents clients in regulatory actions and administrative proceedings, provides counsel and conducts internal reviews and corporate compliance investigations, and advises clients on navigating the regulatory maze and governmental regulations. He joined the firm after serving in the administration of former Pennsylvania Governor Edward G. Rendell as Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Department of State, Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs (BPOA).

Before joining BPOA, Merenda served as Deputy Attorney General, Division of Criminal Justice, New Jersey Attorney General’s Office, Antitrust and Financial Crimes Bureau, Trenton, NJ. In his early years of practice, he was legal counsel for the United Food and Commercial Workers Union Local 1776.

Merenda received his Bachelor of Arts in economics from Villanova University, his Masters in economics from the University of Notre Dame and his juris doctor from the Villanova University School of Law. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
