

Beth Zenuk has been a lifelong resident of Delaware County, originally from Havertown and a 1972 graduate of Haverford High School. Beth currently resides in Upper Chichester with her husband, Greg Zenuk. Greg is Director of Sales for a US owned, international manufacturing company, Brinkman Products. Beth and Greg, have three children; Jamie is an insurance broker for Kelly Insurance Company in Perkiomen; second son, Matt is a Special Needs Teacher working with 13 to 18 year olds at The Devereux School Malvern Campus; and their daughter, Kelsey is a business major, attending Temple University while on a Woman's Lacrosse Scholarship.

Currently Beth is Chief of Staff for State Representative Stephen Barrar. In addition to managing his legislative staff, she is responsible for resolving state related issues for constituents, businesses and municipalities.

Beth has held her own public office, appointed as Upper Chichester Township Commissioner in 1999 and elected for two additional terms. Her responsibilities included managing the Township's personnel and seven million dollar annual budget. Beth was also appointed and served as the Upper Chichester Police, Fire and Public Safety Commissioner and contract negotiator.

Extremely active in her community Beth is a Chairperson or Executive Board Member of several local organizations. Most of the organizations focus on toward women's health, rights and empowerment, with a particular concentration toward promoting women to run for public office.