The Holidays Start at Neumann

The Cultural Arts Forum at Neumann University rings in the holiday season with Kate & Randy Do the Holidays on Thursday, December 7 at 1:30 p.m.

Gaslight Productions brings the talents of Randy Shupp and Kate Casano as they sing their Christmas favorites. Casano is a piano and accordion player who got her start in New Orleans as a steamboat calliope player and barroom ragtime pianist. Now based in Philadelphia, Casano is active as a contra dance musician and a participant in rock, blues and old-time bands. Shupp is a bass-baritone and co-found of Gaslight Productions who has performed in the local area for over 30 years.

This event is presented by the Cultural Arts Forum, which has been sponsoring events to support adult women students at Neumann University through the endowed scholarship named in honor of the founder of the Forum, Margaret Mary Kearney. Since its founding in 1970, the Forum has presented more than 250 events and seminars.

The event will be held in the Fred P. Meagher Theatre in the Thomas A. Bruder, Jr. Life Center on campus. Admission is $10. Free for Cultural Arts Forum members. Please contact Nicholas DiMarino at 610-558-5626 or at dimarinn@neumann.edu for more information.
